

Pat McNees Enters Nationwide Elks Club Leadership Contest

By BILLIE ROBERTSON

Parents who have kept their youngsters from attending Stephen M. White Junior School because of fear of traffic hazards are still determined they won't attend without bus transportation.

About 75 youngsters were kept from school because parents feared for their safety while walking to and from their homes, north of 212th St. between Normandie and Western Aves. Twice that many remained home when the school opened last Monday.

Meanwhile, leaders of the parents said that a spokesman for the school system has promised that a survey of the sidewalkless streets between the residential area and the school will be made to determine the extent of the hazard.

There are about 221 youngsters attending the school from this area parents said, but many of those who were not kept home have made arrangements for temporary transportation.

Walking would be rough for the children in any kind of weather, especially hazardous in the fog or rain.

The reason for the problem of no bus transportation is that the children live less than 2 1/2 miles from the school.

I have some good news to report on Pat McNees who lives at 22105 Denker Ave. She, along with James C. Flagg of Lomita, have won a great honor.

These two Narbonne High School students have been selected by Elks Lodge No. 966 for entry in a nationwide youth leadership contest sponsored by the fraternal organization.

Their essays on why they feel qualified for student leadership were chosen by a lodge committee from a long entrants from four high schools in the area.

Each will receive a $50 savings bond and a certificate of merit at a meeting of the lodge on Monday.

Meanwhile, their essays will be judged Thursday in a district competition at Redondo Beach as the next step toward state and national contests.

Both youngsters are student body officers, have high scholastic standings and are active in school organizations.

New Public Relations, Ad Firm Opens

The first advertising and public relations firm in this area, John Popovich and Associates, has located at 1733 Border Ave., according to John Popovich, president.

A staff of artists, copy writers, and production men are available for all types of work, Popovich said.

A native of Torrance, Popovich is a graduate of the University of California at Santa Barbara, where he studied advertising. He is a former member of the Army intelligence corps and formerly was associated with the advertising department of the Torrance Herald.

John Stuteville, UCLA graduate and former newspaperman, is marketing consultant and account executive with the firm.

About 25 gallons of water are needed to produce one gallon of aviation gasoline.

they broke into the Western Cafe at 21176 Western Ave., early Saturday, police said.

Investigators said the thieves forced open a door and then apparently used tire tools in an attempt to open a safe which contained $2144 in cash and checks. While they worked they consumed a fifth of Canadian whiskey.

When they failed to open the 700-pound safe, they lugged it to a vehicle and drove away with it.

The crime was discovered Saturday morning by the owner of the cafe, Larry Batty of 820 Felbar Ave.

In the parade in Torrance celebrating the All-America Award presented to the city, some of the Strip women were injured in a freak accident. I am late getting this in the paper, but was waiting on the word from some of the injured.

Margerie Baudin of Torrance, whose arm and leg injury is improving, called me and told me that Peggy Peacock of Wilmington, is still in the hospital with severe injuries. Joyce Clay who was the driver, and Leona Shiffer are still making trips to the doctor, but they are better.

These women are members of the Moose and had a car and float in the parade. When a car stopped quite suddenly the car driven by Joyce Clay smacked into it.

Peggy received a broken leg and foot. The other women in the car escaped without any injuries.

The regular meeting of the Shoestring Strip Advisory Board was held last Tuesday evening at the Normandie Recreation Center. A crowd of 75 was present.

After the business of the evening was over, Joe Goss read the annual report on the progress of the Strip.

The problem of the bus for the new school at 223rd and Figueroa was discussed, but no answer was found.

The speaker of the evening was Sgt. Tom McTigue of the Los Angeles Police Department's Juvenile Division who spoke on the narcotic problem among juveniles in the Los Angeles area.

The meeting was under the direction of Herman Eisenbeiss who was working under the direction of Councilman John Gibson.

After the meeting, refreshments, using the Valentine theme, were served, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Robertson, assisted by Louise Under.

The next meeting will be March 5 in the auditorium of Normandie.

young lives so come on and buy the cookies when the youngsters come to your door or stop you on the street.

The Nina Bowers Circle of the Torrance Baptist Church held its second meeting of the year at the home of Elinor Ruffles. Some of the members of this circle belong to the Strip area. I am a member and know that a wonderful time was had by all attending this meeting of great importance.

The regular meeting of the 223rd St. School will hold their PTA meeting Feb. 19 in the auditorium. This is the Founder's Day meeting and a Life Membership Pin will be awarded to some one who has been outstanding in the past in community and school activities. Be sure to attend at 1:30.

Another important meeting that is to be held on the 19th is the parents of I should say the mothers of the Brownies of Troop 218. This meeting will be held at Geneva Moore's at 1520 Torrance Blvd. The time will be 7:30 and plans for the coming months will be ironed out to make the weekly meetings for the girls more interesting. Congratulations to the parents of new babies in our neck of the woods. First of all Richard Rex Jr. came to live with Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Kincaid of 1330 W. Carson St., last week. He checked in weighing a big 10 lbs. and 4 oz.

Then on Feb. 4 the Kroger's of 21503 Meyler St. was very pleased to have Julie Marie come to stay with them. She tipped the scales at 8 lbs. and 1 oz. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kroger.

The Slim-u-Trim Class at Normandie Playground, 22400 Halldale, began their class last Wednesday morning at 10 a.m. This class is open to any woman in the community and we are urging mothers to bring their pre-school children as baby-sitting will be arranged. Exercises will be done to the accompaniment of the music of Mrs. Norma Dobrick. Immediately following the exercising, at 11, there will be a class for pre-school children. The youngsters will be given an opportunity to participate in singing, games, painting and simple rhythmic activities. Bring your children and spend the morning at your playground.
